

Townsend Folk Enjoy Program

Attendance Increasing Each Week

By BETH FAIGE
Mrs. Della Moon opened her lovely big home at 2303 Andrea avenue to the Townsend Club for a special meeting and broadcast, Oct. 26, where we received private bulletins and messages from Dr. F. E. Townsend. At a previous meeting the club was regaled with the attempt of a certain politician to ingratiate himself into our good graces. It was laughable to watch the facial expression when he realized how miserably he had failed. The same result overtook some other propaganda. Our attendance is increasing every week; last meeting brought out a big crowd and they were repaid well, for the pumpkin pies and hot coffee fairly melted away. The whole entertainment was given under direction of program chairman, Mrs. Lula Kent. Those taking part were: Mr. Rogue, a newcomer to Torrance, gave some witty and clever impersonations; Miss Lura Russell gave two piano solos; Leonard Voorhis, accompanied at the piano by his mother, Mrs. Effie Voorhis, played two beautiful violin solos. We are grateful for their kindness in putting on that program and hope to have them again. We also feel we are indebted to Alfred Gourdier for his timely speech and practical help.

DRUNK DRIVER FINED
Hubert E. Walters, 56, 2448 1/2 Park street, Walteria, was arrested for driving while intoxicated on Highway 101 in his home community last Friday. He was fined $50 or given 25 days in jail and his driver's license suspended. He paid the fine.

Final Draft From PWA Received

$12,133 Check Completes Government's Share In Civic Center

Bringing to a close a successful negotiation between the federal government and the city of Torrance of more than a year's duration, City Clerk A. H. Bartlett announced Monday that he had received the final draft for the Public Works Administration's contribution toward the construction of the civic center buildings.

The draft was for $12,133.20. With the payment of this sum, the federal government's part in the erection of the Torrance city hall and jail, Torrance municipal auditorium and Torrance public library is concluded.

Additional Buildings
Because the national election this week held the attention of all governmental agencies, no further progress is reported toward the construction of the proposed new administration building adjoining the civic auditorium or the new fire hall to replace the present damaged structure on Cravens avenue.

Final approval of a $4,950 federal grant for the administration building was announced last week by the Public Works Administration in Washington and favorable action is expected soon on the federal grant for the new fire hall. The latter project has run the entire gauntlet of federal offices up to and including the signature of Secretary Ickes. All that is lacking is President Roosevelt's signature. The mandate of the people given the Roosevelt administration Tuesday is a factor that practically assures continuance of the PWA and thus endorsement of the fire hall grant is confidently expected within a few days.

Started Last January
Following approval of a bond issue here to contribute toward the construction cost of the model civic center structures, the contract for their erection was signed Jan. 14. The various building costs were: City hall, $60,106.72; auditorium, $62,566.97; and library, $32,133.09.

The PWA contributed approximately 45 percent toward the material and labor costs, the check received by City Clerk Bartlett being the administration's final payment of that grant.

Hospital Notes
Miss Madeline Mahfood of 514 Agate street, Redondo Beach, who was injured in an automobile accident in Los Angeles, was brought to the Torrance Memorial hospital Oct. 31 for further medical attention.

Mrs. Ethel Kincaid of 1234 West 161st street, Gardena, was admitted to the hospital Nov. 1 for surgical attention. Others listed as surgical patients this week are Frank Holmes, 1012 Manhattan avenue, Manhattan Beach, admitted Nov. 2; Mrs. Linda Johnson, 25425 Eshelman street, Lomita, on Oct. 30; Miss Arlene Kern, 18824 South Normandy avenue, Gardena, on Nov. 2.

Fred Moir, 226 North Catalina avenue, Redondo Beach, was received Nov. 2 for surgical attention; Mrs. Ellen Doherty, 529 South Main street, Redondo Beach, on Oct. 29; John Dronberger, 108 Highland street, Redondo Beach, on Oct. 30.

Reported Recovering
Among those recovering from surgical treatment are Mrs. Olive Cole, 1066 Neptune avenue, Wilmington, who was received Oct. 28; Mrs. Rhea Nete Chisman, 604 South Broadway, Redondo Beach, on Oct. 20; Mrs. Elda Fair, 1056 Belmont avenue, Long Beach, on Oct. 28; Mrs. Jean Gunderson, 213 South Franciscan street, Redondo Beach, on Oct. 25.

Mrs. Edith Owens, 612 1/2 Elvira street, Redondo Beach, who was admitted Oct. 28, is improving, as are Mrs. Dorothy Prince, 1618 Acacia street, Torrance, who was received Oct. 25, and Frank Terris, aged 84, of 900 Strand avenue, Redondo Beach, who was suffering from a fractured pelvis when he was admitted Oct. 25.

Sam Gourley, 608 North Guadalupe, Redondo Beach, who was received Oct. 21 following an automobile accident is recovering. Dr. Charles L. Egbert, of Hastings, Neb., who was admitted Oct. 21 for medical treatment is still a patient at the hospital, as is the son of M. C. Davis, 214 Cornelia avenue, Redondo Beach, who was received Oct. 22.

New Arrivals
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carpenter of 705 Sartori avenue, Torrance, at the hospital Nov. 1. The baby, which is their first child, is thriving and the mother is showing a steady gain. Carpenter is employed by the General Petroleum Refinery.

Cow Chattel For $601
BRAYMER, Mo. (U.P.)—A chattel mortgage for $601 was filed with the recorder of deeds here with a four-year-old Guernsey cow which weighs 1000 pounds as sole security. The mortgage was given to the Real Estate Administration.

Careful driving on the highways is not only called for but is the best kind of insurance.
